

River City Players

September 2008 Newsletter

SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS

performances on Labor Day weekend were a tremendous hit with the audiences. The cast played to a full house on Saturday and large crowds on Sunday. The show ended with a cast party at the Wild Horse Cafe on Sunday night.. A BIG THANKS to everyone who made the show a big success.

THANK YOU FARMERS BANK FOR SPONSORING OUR SHOW!

Anyone that would like a CD with pictures from SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS performances may contact Kathy Thomas at 992-5328 or kkthomas31@yahoo.com will be announced soon for RCP's upcoming Broadway Dinner Theatre to be presented Nov. 21-22 at the Meigs Elementary School. Seth Argabright will be directing the show. Keep checking www.rcplayers.net for dates and times for auditions.

AUDITION DATES

RCP CLEAN UP DAY

RCP will be having a major clean up day to organize our props and costumes soon at our building in Middleport. Date to be announced soon!

WELCOME BACK JOSEPH!

Joseph Wright will be returning as Executive and Artistic Director of the Ariel Theatre in Gallipolis in October.